Day 1

TREKKING BASE TORRES

06:15 to 06:45 Hrs. / Pick Up

We depart from Puerto Natales towards Torres del Paine National Park via Route 9. After a one and a half hour drive, we will arrive at the Laguna Amarga Entrance, where we will register at the CONAF facilities. Then, we will head to the Welcome Center of the Torres Reserve, where our guides will provide a briefing while we prepare for our first activity, which is the Base Torres trek.

This trek is the most famous in the park and one of the most recognized in the world. Along the way, we will be accompanied by our guides on a round-trip hike of approximately 22 km, lasting about 8 hours, along a trail of medium-high difficulty that will gradually immerse us in the mountain environment.

Once we reach the Base Torres viewpoint, at 870 meters above sea level, we can enjoy our box lunch while taking in the spectacular view of the South, Central, and North Towers (De Agostini, Central, and Monzino), along with the Torres lagoon and glacier. We will descend along the same trail back to the Welcome Center, where our vehicle will be waiting to take us to Camping Pehoé, located in the heart of the National Park next to the lake of the same name, famous for its turquoise waters and offering a privileged view of the Paine Massif. Here, we will stay at our campsite, which features pre-assembled and equipped tents, as well as our dome, which we will use as a base for planning our outings.

We offer full board meals, where we can enjoy snacks and beverages made with regional products. In the evening, we will have dinner at the Camping Pehoé restaurant, where we can choose from three main dish options. The following day, after a refreshing rest, we will have breakfast at the restaurant and receive our box lunch for lunch before starting our activities for the second day

Return to the campsite: 08:30 PM.approximately.

Day 2

TREKKING VALLE DEL FRANCÉS

07:30 AM.

We will head in our vehicle to the Pudeto area to board the catamaran, in which we will sail for approximately 25 minutes across Lake Pehoé towards the dock at Refugio Paine Grande, enjoying excellent views of the Paine Massif and Salto Grande.

Once we disembark, we will prepare to begin the 22 km round trip trek, lasting approximately 8 hours, along a low-medium difficulty trail that skirts Lake Skottberg. Upon reaching the Italiano Camp area, we will take a brief stop to have a snack and rest before entering the French Valley, a formation that showcases the retreat of glaciers and offers unique views of the Paine Massif from its southwestern face and surroundings, until we reach the viewpoint that will allow us to admire the French Glacier.

We will continue on the route to reach the British Camp, at 490 meters above sea level, which offers an impressive view of the surrounding area, dotted with relict glaciers. Once we rest, we will begin our return along the same trail to board the catamaran again to the Pudeto area, where our vehicle will be waiting to take us to the Pehoé sector around 20:00 hrs. After an excellent dinner at the Camping Pehoé restaurant, we will stay at our campsite W

Return to the campsite: 08:30 PM. approximately.

Day 3

TREKKING MIRADOR LAGO GREY

07:30 AM.

Departure from our camp at Pehoé, heading towards the Pudeto area to wait for the catamaran crossing, and disembark at Paine Grande to begin our route to the Grey Glacier Viewpoint.

Once we disembark, we will get ready to start the trekking of 22 Kms. round trip during 8 Hrs. approximately by a medium difficulty trail, through a Lenga forest and appreciating different views of Paine Grande and Grey Lake, until we arrive to the viewpoint, place where we will have lunch (box lunch), rest and appreciate nature in all its splendor.

We will return by the same trail to the Paine Grande Refuge to return on the catamaran. We will return to our campsite in the Pehoé sector, where we will have dinner at the Pehoé Camping restaurant and stay at our campsite W

Return to the campsite: 08:30 PM. approximately.

Day 4

TREKKING SENDERO AONIKENK

08:00 AM.

Departure from our camp at Pehoé, heading towards the Sarmiento Entrance, where we will start a trek of approximately two hours to Laguna Amarga Entrance via the Aonikenk Trail, a well-known biological corridor for local wildlife and also a route for the first human inhabitants of the area, who left their mark in a series of rock paintings that we will be able to see. This low-difficulty route will provide us with the opportunity to observe abundant birdlife and enjoy a very attractive view of the Paine Massif with the Paine River at its feet.

Once the trekking is finished, we will go to the Laguna Azul sector, to the northwest of the park, where we will have lunch and be able to observe an amazing view of the Torres del Paine and abundant flora and fauna. From here we will start our return to Puerto Natales

Return to the city: 06:00 PM approximately.
